Hamburg Open – A bit of history

The Hamburg Open can look back on an impressive history dating back to 1892, making it one of the oldest tennis tournaments in the world. Today, it is one of the elite 16 ATP 500 events on the tour and was voted a top-three tournament by players in 2024. Over the years, it has been held at various venues across Hamburg, and this year's editions will mark the 120th tournament at the Rothenbaum Tennis Center. Many tennis legends, including Bjorn Borg, Ivan Lendl, Stefan Edberg, Yannick Noah, Rafael Nadal and Alexander Zverev, have triumphed here.

Last year's champion and rising star, Flavio Cobolli, joined this remarkable list. Roger Federer remains the most successful player in the tournaments history with four titles to his name.
